Windsor

My dear Mr. Button I am very glad to hear that in the whole since I wrote last the Letter is more composed & I hope in God not suffering any bodily pain but her nerves are still shock & it will be a long time before she gets over the sort of grief she suffered in receiving the unfortunate & all pious letters her Explanations will be — I send in the good enclosure from Sir Henry Stafford this evening that the King (understand to be from well & that he had taken my ill - I am sure I am not surprised - The dear King is good & composed and I hope as usual -

Prince & Mary
to
The Prince Regent
Sept. 6.

Yours
affly
Mary
