At the 30

London

Having just heard from William you are lame & have in con-sequence put off your journey out of town - I would not see the Purphey & send a few lines by my cousin Bartholomew to inquire after you - As I have been completely confined to my couch for 10 days (though but with the gout) I have a lame than usual pleasure for you - & hope it may go off without any violent pain He I returned from town as she always does the letter for the change -

the King thought he had stayed to eat with us but he had gone for some days before he was but so as I was much better but had quite off my feet yet
