

[1816]
(Death of "Coully")

March the 23

London

From my heart do I rejoice at the good account of Sir Blomfield's recovery both yesterday & today and sincerely hope a few days may bring you to some where the joy of all those who really love you will be great at seeing you well again at last

Anne — Myself on night to have been performed for our old and faithful friend Gualtero's letter got it was so sudden and unexpected at last that it has shaken us very much — She has remembered my sisters and
 us each a most agreeable & begging our acceptance

[1816]
(Death of "Cousin")

of some of these trinkets she valued much - She has left her Legacy but to us having fifty Pounds a year to a servant of hers (who left her to be married some time or there years ago) and every thing else to Miss Gorman for her life & then to Miss Gorman for ever - She is to be buried at Bath near her Mother - She has been sick all these year but was particularly well on Sunday fast and out in the morning was many of the friends that morning & were a good dinner - at 4 o'clock in the evening we played upon in the hall which she had had often for some months before Sir J. Guelin was with her & she was there but between 12 & one she said & quite easy at last - but for one hour or so with 2 or 3 others you will

I am
 the Prince
 of Wales
