My dear Brother
I am desired by Dolly to return you many thanks for your kind inquiries, I have the happiness of informing you he is going on very well, the fellow Bone is certainly lame but he suffers very little pain, the most unpleasant part of the humor is heat having told him he will not lose the use of his arm for some weeks.

The Queen & my Sister have desired me to say every thing kind in return for your recollection of them —

Dolly hopes you will have a pleasant party at Sir A. Featherston's, is very sorry he must now give up all thoughts of belonging to it. He also joins with me in wishing you every happiness that God can afford — Indeed certainly is better than

The morning is but clear -

I am always happy in having an opportunity of informing you how Brother you will ever find me your truly affectionate and sister
