 (P. 33. Mary writes 13, but of "America's last King" p. 312)

My dear Brother I should have answered your kind letter sooner, but I am sure you will excuse it when I inform you the King never left us till half past 10. I had a week a day I never went through in my life. The poor Queen keeps up wonderfully but the trial is a great sorrow and she desires me to thank you for your kind attention & for the off expressions contained in your letter concerning her as well as all my letters.
 I am happy to old her name's health has not suffered yet from all she has gone through in mind & hope you will be worse to know I take my leave Better you will take care of yourself and truly sorry was I to hear you have been so ill & still suffer from what I have this learned and I must return to the Duke & bid me from news & in my situation in life your affe

Mary
