

AA

c Jan. or Feb. 1818
 (see Aspinall NO. 789 & Creevey Vol. I p. 272)

My dear Brother

In the first place
 I have had a letter from Wally who tells me the I is half destroyed just having received William letter in which he tells me he has proposed & has accepted by my brother & will be at Windsor to begin the I had several quarters write to William to say she was much too hurried to write & deliver not to see her until she had seen you - William has been with me a full hour & probably our conversation with the death of his son & then opened in the business of Miss. Wickham I told him it was a thing that never could

AA

c Jan. or Feb. 1818
(see Aspinall No. 789 or Creery Vol. I p. 272)

& that you never could give your consent the word he was determined to go through with it & that he was certain
 the Act of Parliament was such that he should carry the point
 all day long with
 that he advised you & that he felt your kindness & that I suppose what might it could make in change in his offer for you, but that he had never

to go through another & so had Miss Webb
that he had to
the advice of Council of that I saw a Pigeon apart from the
could prevent this
Miss Webb
of the chore of the

but to apply to Parliament
He was in a very good
- manner but he
decided on the subject
I told him I was sure it would break the L's heart - he said I love him very much but
on your account judge
for himself in this word & when she sees
the cut she will be after 25 years of age

any one of the Royal Family may receive
 when they please &
 in spite of all they say I will receive her
 & the Princess consort
 will be very forme
kind at last as the letter you it at once & then wanted to convince me in your

I have your reference of the same only that I earnestly would not let your affairs
 be stopped your
 affection

I have your reference of the
 same only that I earnestly
 would not let your affairs
 be stopped your
 affection

I have your reference of the
 same only that I earnestly
 would not let your affairs
 be stopped your
 affection

Duchess of Gloucester
to
The Prince of Wales