

7th Summer 1818

My dear Mr. Butler

I write by Dolly's desire to say that he has been prevented
calling at Fortland House this morning as he had business to arrange with Crutcher but will be with you to dinner you certainly - He is gone to London for a few hours but

admitted in time to dine at York House — He wishes me to add that if you could take time in your journey to London to the Palace
he should be very much obliged to you & says Blossfield will let him know
what time you go & if you can take
Mr. [unclear]
