My dearest Brother

We arrived at this place about half past 8 o'clock last night. Your own good heart will be a judge of what we felt on first coming into the Castle & on first seeing by day for the words can not describe what it was - I thank God it is over & long as the land some state & is more composed to day - I am quite well I only get the sleep but is the more for the evening I am well & I am well equally surprised to find her in so much better health than when I saw her last -

The sight of the poor Beckwith & most of the poor women & old servants to day has been a great trial but we are getting over all this in fact as we can - My let me take this opportunity of expressing my gratitude to you for all your kindness to me during all my life I may say but never forgetting during this last summer when your offer kind and attentions I never can forget I trust your own health will not suffer from all the anxiety you have gone through & think me ever your ever & ever all situations in life your most attached & devoted of Sisters
