

[1819]

Boyleston Park Sep^r 3 -

My kindest thanks must be my sure I shall not enquire any further on little the pleasure they took in seeing you last week in your way to Boyleston but I rejoiced to hear from them how well you was looking &c. Dr Taylor gave me your envelope and I perfectly understand the importance of your making them any note you have logged down - I felt awkward in making the request but sometimes one can not help being under the necessity of doing what in our hearts one had rather not but it has all passed off delightfully well & I have not heard the subject since since - Taylor came to us yesterday & informed me of our court that he told you of when you was at Windsor I can not say it surprised me after all I saw going on the fortnight I was at Windsor & I must

[1819]

carefully
sincerely believe it may turn out every way for the happiness & comfort a more honorable name has not breath in this world & there is no more accountable young woman & I hope in God the will be a comfortable revenge - I hope is very full of all your kindness to be which he feels deeply - I think top of this the constant society is the little will be not top involved - for through he says nothing should make him give up his idea yet as a learned man of course he can not be expected to live in the country as he has done -

As I find no great situation what I require God bless you keep me and my family happy and forgetting the H - J. M.

Diary of J. M.