Pro^o the 10th of Windsor
My dear Brother
A thousand thanks for your kind offer letter & for the beautiful Brooches
You have so kindly sent us - which I am sure we shall all value for your sake & be one more than

[1819]

myself your expression of kindness & every other feelings, and having hoped the day with us all can not be more
 sincerely felt than by us all & the joy of seeing you
 is for better felt than elsewhere

It is impossible to say how much my heart is penetrated
 by all your kindness concerning Brighton & with what pleasure pleasure I am looking forward to the day I am to join you at that place - I write to the Duke & family

I am quite certain he must & will ful all your business &
if he can perform my story I will not doubt he will at the same time knowing
he has made
all his arrangements to return to less by a Wife than any body else —

but I shall get one answer from them in this or three days, he is now at good Crosses & the point
I do you shall hear from me but this I think that if I can not stay as long

now as your such sentences I would venture to write
you an other note
for a few days before you leave Brighton for good but after we two have about of miles I should see how

I can with propriety prop to try and say from Home if he is inclined to go to Boyalund & not willing to alter this arrangement August two when the square Princet & will write himself by the

Lyby is not out of her bed yet Therefore therefore the two others will be chosen by Jby & the will write still you know they are returned Guff
Dunbar

By order after the
of that the Stowages & business & more
when I was first was asked to come between the 9th 24 or 25 when we are engaged to the Furniture and Bridgwater for two nights at least, before I

own makes me
 from the case
 not will hurry
 to stay as long as you is kindly write us - & much & interest as I
 ever can to take advantage of every opportunity of improving your mind and
and most valuable

country which is above them life
 to me & above all your constant affection & kindness to me - which blame me is deeply impressed in my heart - but after all I thought it
 best to tell you
the truth that in case I am not content to stay

the length of time Your great kindness propose that you will not take at all of me in an ill
part from him
I am sure is sure & has not like to be put out of his own — & still
