

[1819]

Dear Mr. 3 Brighton
My kind Brother as words can tell how much I lamented your leaving us yesterday & how I grieve you are not enjoying this beautiful Day & breathing the sea air but I hope & trust nothing will prevent your coming down the end of next week - at all events to put myself out of the question to visit the Duke of Gloucester who has promised to come to us some week for a day or two - & I think it would amuse

him much if he did but I found you at Brighton as his work is really to you & but to me before this occasion - I felt so dull & I stepped when your passage down off that I thought I could not make myself agreeable so asked to Paul to come in the evening
 that you returned I
 whatly denied with us & made himself
 to particularly agreeable that in spite of his

& me
 off
 all
 but is
 Ch
 me
 & a
 I
 it
 to be
 me
 day
 how (to

[1819]

but & whether the decision must of will all your people all attention & knowledge but still the business is mounting - after coffee Ch W. Dally left us & then we did not quarrel & as a proof of this when I asked what a clock
it was I was surprised to find it was already half past 11 when I
we went to bed - so day the matter is lowly & truly successful (the & highly met

Stopping, the only person I went was only E. Buckley or attend I did not know him & I suppose there he attend me likewise as the old text was not in but when we found out each other, the same creature was sighted & was so much convinced then gratefully to your side that we both cried - I have to have you a long walk & since that a Davis - The Cunningham from Worcester

2 D. J. Keble came to me this evening & I have hoped for the best as I feel I shall be a total substitute in your absence to hold up the Ball & I must try & do my very best I asked Lady Anne whether she was so engaged
she would not come to Brighton but will be there - as to my part it certainly looks better - than God bless you I trust you & your Cabinet will

but it off will together I wish them all sincerely to prosper as I trust & love them when
from your present Government - but I wish them all at the bottom of the sea -
for calling you
a man from Weymouth
during long stay
at this place & then
you may tell them
on the long way but rather for them well from