

Hm. 1819

[1819]

Brighton Dec^r the 6 Although I have written you to my dearest Mother today yet I must write one line just to say God bless you & still to express hope you will come down Friday or Saturday - as only can tell how dull Brighton is without you & how I do long for your return -
 I sat to day & read a walk & view - the Warricks & Canning house

done with us to day & the of y^e best, our Daughter her in love & Miss Gordon came in the evening - Belonging I forgot to tell you is at Weymouth since Saturday in the little boat I therefore wanted leave for this evening - He has taken a holiday for a fortnight & goes out to Weymouth
 I have barely been well my ill yesterday -

Per
 the
 in
 G

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]