

1820

[1820]

Bay Street Park, 7/17 -

I must beg most bitter your excuse to day to say that I find Edward ~~was~~ still very seriously ill on Saturday night, and Mr Deane received a letter yesterday to try to send go down to business that you know was impossible & I am sure if Edward had had any other that Deane's attendance ~~was~~ was was was frequent he was was

1820

[1820]

Having the Boycott yet being water was said about Willic's was here about a fortnight & returned here on Saturday & found the King very much weaker & the news since he was here had & calls it a very gradual decay with the appearance of very considerable danger

God bless your Grace
 The Duke's secret duty
 Yours truly
 Medley

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the document.]