My beloved Mother

I can not let the Post go without troubling you with these lines
 just to enquire after you not only in my own name but that of the Duke & his Sister Amelia who would seemly to be in the warm affection as for my self I can only say by your own feeling you will judge all that is conspiring in my Account - The whole is a Discovery & I can hardly believe the thing yet I must to Windsor in

 - meditation of your being of it & should write done in after your letter of last length which I did not
 and was thinking the

but my way to meet you at Windsor I found very tedious as well as I could expect My much dear — I was very to find by how you had got a cold
 but glad you did not come as the weather was so rough & God knows you would have found all gloomy & unwholesome enough
 as it is comfortable
 but to feel best

deeply understanding circumstances that go to very length & the prospect that their misfortune will soon be followed by one often for the increased working proof that it can not be far off, all attributed to the necessity of being not to live dear Wendell - I thank God that your beloved dear com & sent his love to all
his family & that your letter of congratulation so kind & comforted them in his last moments, and a consolation it must be to you my dear Brother & how I do thank God for that - How I do feel for the same of -

Yours
Mary
