

[1820]

Royal Park Jan^y 30
 My kind thanks even only perhaps by two more feelings which remain and suffer
 at this moment —
 The impulse of my heart was to go with the Duke to see you but with the numerous business that is crowding all round me perhaps I might find this way — The Duke has promised to let me go either Tuesday or Wednesday to stay with my dear Sister when I shall I may

a little unprofitable at least the modern mode of living would be to send my offer to them by directing some time to them & the Duke most kindly enter
into these feelings —
 I Pray God Your and Health may not suffer from this new
colony & through my Blood put in for
many so years been in the situation that is by
in the course of the naturally steps into by the

[1820]

copy of mine are ordered & respected fathers yet by that name name allow me to address
 you & say that from my heart I beg that you may follow the full steps of your rules in your command that you might say to ^{as} ~~the~~ ~~public~~ in public courts as your Request was here, that my undertaking of your & Government may be successful and that God
 in his mercy will protect you & give you
 health for your Court

last
 my
 before
 some
 the
 letters
 the
 new
 my
 for
 in
 by
 the
 the

arduous and most respectful interest & loyalty being that & valued brethren extend your affection towards
my dear father who
most you merit &
my dear brethren
old & faithful servants
who have for years
so faithfully attended
and served him
& with every prayer
for your happiness
& hope you will
ever love me as you
have done I remain
Your affectionate Son

It requires a few lines to show mine to say all
 I feel on the subject of the loss of my blood
 but I remember our business with my hand I blame
 in this country & in
 part, in your interest
 some more land &
 his change for business
 in a paper and

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the document.]