My Beloved Brother I have just off sending you one of my scrolls only because I felt in the the immense business you have on your hands it is hardly fair to plague you with a letter - but I can not remain silent any longer having heard of your Profligate ~~unbecomg~~ conduct towards Augustus which I can see may fully merit all the the brightest beams & conduct to to the head & heart. My humble expressions & feelings on this subject come to of my little inconvenience but the offer of a sister speaks any less & as a sister any most open to both of you but my voluntariness for your any to land better & being is such that my activeness of your life my feeling of your

my
the
out
of
or

I a re

to heart I ever cherish too & your kindness & cordials & good wishes I have as at heart that it is difficult to describe all & how my thoughts night & day are thinking of you & praying that the world may do you
of you are seen & known
you must be loved
I hope in a few days

come & see you I shall be in town the day after the last Duties are performed
to leave the Court without seeing my Sister
town ready to go to apply the monument
the funds for me -
they are making the great exertions and have so much to do

I think of that in view these thoughts & hopes than in constant employment Augusta I think has done wisely in sending for the Dow & Harcourt to join her at Foyers & Monday as she was with her
her affections & is much attached she could not have a better person with her & from Augusta I am sure will feel truly & affectionately truly at first & I should not be surprised if the was ill as the began to flag early yesterday & I had a letter from Ston dated

near Ston young
