Glocester House
March the 8 -

My kind Brother I did not intend troubling you with a second letter but your good and kind of letter must not go unanswered one hundred & a thousand & ten thousand thanks for my kind entertainment in it & first in the Duke mine I am to express with his usual affe Duty here remaine he will your grace's request after him he is other but not well & by me to old time must be applied to time that change of air has been of so much use & many before that the

as the world over entombed You will have my advantage from the sea air & return to Paris in perfect health as to myself I have by wish what we do for they think the Jones's Pounds on day will be soon made & you are before I may go & we highly desire to receive you on board I have a short & important letter from the man highly delighted with your kind letter which he wrote me and of the moment he had me to - I have nothing less to tell you - I have given Lady Butcher to say in allusion to your question I looked at the last from a time & to write of what I could truly

Here it was too - Day of of June to manufacture a fortnight - truly having had a to the manufactory I had all of you for to the last June upon last night that the Dm 2nd of July get away - Sir W^r Stirling I fully intended to make July 1st but got me home till the 2^d of July
away in number a hurry I had but time God bless you & bane me with my many thanks and best regards to your son

for John Warren has been very ill with an inflammation in his lung - but I hope find time to see this morning -
