[1820]

My dear Brother A thousand thanks for your valuable kind letter The Duke desires his affection & bids me to say that we felt more your recent congratulation at the Duke's letter & he is delighted with the admirable manner you have made to the request — I hope that you will not attempt to prevent any more until the

And has changed. The cold of today is quite dreadful & I shall be unwell to hear you are free from cough - I have had very tooth out out last was beautifully done & I am in better
It is gone - in all other
- respect I am quite well again - My is empty of new stomach but the was not in bed spent when I was with her to say & I wonder you could have heard her take off her conversation that she interrupted <sup>tabling</sup> ~~preference~~ before them the poor Queen & the Pope - that I should wonder how bold you I really brought the poor Queen completely back to my memory. That said I shut my eyes I should have thought she was in the room - I think by what but I may have an answer from Gloria but I really don't think I could have had it sooner. It will make her want to reply very soon from you. God bless you & please see me your affectionate daughter,

Mary
