

July 20th 1830
(They received compensation by Day 9th 1831 - v. Household Index in Dining room)

In consequence of the interview I had with you some days ago in which you requested I would ascertain in writing the expenses of the Duchess of Devonshire in Cook & household - since the time of their leaving Buckingham House - I observed they would state the amount & they have accordingly placed in my hands the different Statements they have found for their own consumption as well as that of the servants in the kitchen, & the household when when under them at the Palace & now which should be continued & mentioned until further orders - Allow me to return you my best thanks for entering so warmly into my anxiety on this subject which I hope is made out clearly & shows you that they would be lovers if they had not agreed to assist them

Yours

Mary

Yours truly Anne
