My Dearest Mary,

Your kind letter of yesterday has proved very satisfactory to me as it conveys a more comfortable account than any yet received of dear Amelia, and confirms my hopes, that, as she recovers the effects of the Journey, her health will also improve. I entirely approve of what has been done in consequence of my suggestion of the use of a Tent, and I admit the propriety of Mr. Beauvais's objections, of the nature of which there on the spot must naturally be the best Judges.

Believe me &c.

(Signed)

George R.
