

Enchil of Kent

My dearest Sister,
We shall have much pleasure in going to Luncheon to you tomorrow. And I accept gratefully
your offer to send your carriage for us, and also to let me have your carriage to go to Sophia if she does not come to you!

But if it should
in the least be inconvenient to you
to send your carriage
I could have the Queen's,
In haste but ever your very affectionate
Victoria
