My dear Mr. Butler

I received a letter from Sophia yesterday full of all your kindness to her which she feels most deeply She says you said please the King very much & desired me to tell you in whatever I write I can not express in strong terms enough how shocked & hurt I am at a story she tells me concerning a letter which was received in a certain quarter from you Friday morning all I can say is that you blame Butter that become very on and can can respond me but I am I hardly thought it possible that is kind a letter note in answer to his so very immediately could have been treated in such a way & I thank God Sophia told you the circumstances & that the King's his anxiety exaggerated with it. For see by her letter to me of last month a very deep anxiety in his mind - and I wish writes me nearly the same which is a proof what an effect it has had on the King - As to our beloved Aunt she has continued suffering great pain in the side however the features are going in discharging the oil on the Chest & she says that in the side but Gorkin says the effusion is as it should be, therefore we must hope & trust in a few days to find more relief from these fevers - but might she had more sleep than enjoyed before none at all from pain & some degree of fever - We certainly are not worse since you left us - God bless you & bless me goodbye

Mary
