

1809

[1809]

Oct^r the 2^d

My dear Papa I have a most kind letter to thank you for received two days ago I am happy in being able to continue informing you dear Amelie's cough is less frequent when the weather is mild & that she does not feel any more than upon her what fever she now has Mr Bevan attributes more to the effects of the medicine she is taken than any thing else. I ^{wish} I could add the pain in the side was in any way relieved I fear as to that her sufferings are much the same & until the Season will not properly we can not expect much change for the better - The warm bath certainly agrees & Amelie herself says she feels more comfortable after the Battle through it fatigue her very much she can remain in longer than she did 10 days ago - We went out in the Boat Yesterday for an hour she was faint & low but not more so than I have seen her before she opened us the sea air rather revived her - General Gantthorn had not seen Amelia since the last time we went out in the Boat was struck with the Amelia looking better & he as well as Sir A. had thought she got into the Boat stronger - Her nights upon the whole are better in some respect as she sleeps more but she complains of constantly

Dream
 She
 I
 of the
 come
 she
 her
 of see
 on
 part
 she
 come
 of
 for
 and
 well
 we

Capt. Vashon in the Phoebe arrived the night before last he is the oldest looking little Quaker I ever saw much shorter than a Puritan with a face nearly as long if not longer than his own body he has a very nice pretty Cubing wife with him Capt. Jones arrived in the Isis yesterday I had not expected to meet him yet in the walk, but I understand from Sir J.
that he is a very sensible good Officer - I try here to hear more of your Dutiful and most affectionate Daughters

Bearon has just been with us he appears to be Pulse is stronger, he does not attack the same consequence as to the
discharge of the scatones as Pipe does -

Lady George thinking her unwell with the cold I hope you will not disagree my thinking well for God Dads to come for a few days which will enable Lady George to take care of herself -

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]