

22 1809

Oct 23^d

My dear Papa

Your kind & most affl
 letter caused both Amelia & me the greatest pleasure & she has desired me to express her gratitude on the strongest terms for your kind
 consideration of her going home which she trust may be attended with as few difficulties as possible. enclosing the necessary states she is labouring under. She begs me to add that she should be satisfied with the least consideration you may think

I am sorry to observe that if I had been more not been originally started against the matter she seems should have made any disputation much further than feeling that if the matter may from the old eye by it would be most cruel & painful to her feelings to be obliged to move again —
 As I have answered I have fully I must refer you to ^{the} ~~the~~ ~~letter~~ for the subject of the journey which I made a very independent day yesterday I think I have in the rule & manner of

22 1809

I received your kind letter of the 17th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were well and in the best of health and so all well as she felt as every uncomfortable she has had a bad night but better found her with the less from today -

Yours Dutiful & affec

Mary

I received
 your kind
 letter of
 the 17th
 and was
 glad to
 hear from
 you and
 to hear
 that you
 were well
 and in the best of health and
 so all well
 as she felt
 as every
 uncomfortable
 she has had
 a bad night
 but better
 found her
 with the less
 from today -

George King
October 22. 1889.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]