I never in my life was so disappointed my dear Mr Adams as in being deprived the happiness & pleasure of seeing you still more near at the end that prevents your coming I sincerely hope some business will come yet quite well & am truly sorry you has been so beautifully the long note we send how she is going on as I am much unwell about her - I am I had quite looked up to the pleasure of seeing her all for I never give up the idea of her marriage & bringing her children that my heart was quite full upon the two previous Mr Adams letter & few things I must say am sick as much as I am but I had to your coming early to see then master & that I am very sure of you than last year do to all you so kindly say about the reports you have heard concerning me I can assure you if I felt sure such a thing would really take place you should not be the last to be informed of it & you may depend upon my ~~reporting~~ ~~you of it myself~~ even telling you myself for all your regard on the subject as may be seen in your letter but your dear wife my heart that I thank God is well as to his health, but his eyes are much the same & his spirits really exceed mine

The same Duke of Gloucester with which is most successful to return. The 2nd all my sister on will I believe has had a fracture but is quite recovered again. I expressed much after William a few days ago when only the Stomach was at Weymouth it you are great satisfaction to have her make so readily & so well of her. My sister George you & her was very glad when she left England if ever you can not have heard anything of her yet.
 Adieu your very dear brother Adams & believe me ever your aff. Wm. Adams
