My dear Mr. Webb

Many thanks for your kind letter & for the one enclosed which I got the Greeny lady on my return to Wexford

I still hope you may succeed as to recommending her to Lady Carlisle as that will be a very great assist

What horrid weather we have been nearly starved to death with cold, the snow keeps us to stay and long longer than was intended in I am, in answer my safely at Wexford on Saturday but found the Birds buried & since no return have never been out of the hole but to go to the hole Sunday a fine old Burying of begin to talk of coming up to town - You have now answered me that quarter - though I have asked you over & over again in all my letters when I have a chance of seeing you I almost begin to fear you intend staying the winter in the country

which will be very kind in William who has been because of success you do all without your own to some - We are going to have a very great loss in our family which is that Mrs. Garrison has in consequence of her death the aged have to return, she has not left us yet, but as soon as she has found a comfortable home ^{will go} she will be going & gently feel this with my love to Maria & Maria & believe me yours
 G. W.
