

June 23. 1808

Friday June the 23

My dear Mr. Adams -

I have been a sort of private since my last return from Lower Hannery invited on the my old & respectable friend Gully that I have not felt equal to writing, but upon being told yesterday by Col. Ingle who has had a letter from your son George that he is married appears to be a most amiable & flourishing young man. I can remember no longer what I should be very glad to be one of the last to wish you joy must seriously do better we will be happy & content from all the people saying the young lady is handsome when bright. He thinks of her as a most deserving girl & one who is naturally and perfectly well acquainted with. I must now I think it most fortunate George was at present again as we the country he now is in it is lucky when a young man forms a business & good connection & therefore I hope you & her relations are not displeas'd

June 23. 1808

When you write to George express all my feelings on the removal of his correspondence & future welfare - I believe you have my approval entirely with a satisfaction of your own but is better again - I wish I could see my sisters and thank God in good health & believe me ever

Yours affectionately
 Mary

My affection to Edward & Susan

Windsor 1808

MISSOR
1791

Handwritten signatures and cursive text, including the name "Bourne" and "Bourne" with "Bourne" written below it.

