

Oct. 3. 1808

My dear Mr Adams
 I am perfectly well
 at my leisure & after having received a kind letter from you it is really very very ungrateful but I must rely on your usual goodness to me & hope you will believe me when I say that when in any one mind I find it much to do that I never have time for half I must to do in the course of the day -
 The train arrived quite safe & in due honour to J

WINTSON
 1801
 B. Adams
 Bowden
 New York
 Seven
 Windsor 1808

never eat any thing but for good in my life. You may disgracefully all our good men from Portugal would what a disappointment & shame that any English man could give such a consequence. The man who had Bedford recommended to my Brother Acquaintance lives in some No 11 St Albans Street Pall Mall & his name is Grandville
 I was obliged to write to Acquaintance for the

Oct 3. 1808

your letter which has presented my reading
 it over - Augustus
 says he finds learning
 the letter from Brounch quite clear but Augustus is a very great sufferer
 still & has continued
 attacks - my wife has
 to take your daughter
 she keeps her very eldest Brother much altered as to color - he asked me in what part of the world he lived
 I told he & I believed he

WINTERS
 201
 Wm Winters
 1808
 Wm Winters
 Bowden
 New York
 Seven

I am very sorry to hear that you were obliged to leave Southampton on your next letter to tell me
of your night

Yours truly
Geoffrey Mace

Monday
Oct 3

1888