My dear Mrs Adams
 Do pray come to me
 as soon as you can Tell Mrs Williams
 whenever she gets equal to come up that I hope she will just come to buy
 mine - Pray tell Prudence that

1810

if she feels inclined at all courts from to coming to the table & by she will stay at August to lodge
 without any provisions
 I have not to give to take to her
 a decide what she likes best

at all courts from her being born
 must be thought of & I hope & trust
 she will not be left alone —
 Yours affly
 W. Mason
