My dear Mrs Adams
Many thanks for your kind note. I am
you I feel better than I had expect all
things, considered
I certainly am
very thing but
just quiet, I am
I am but all
are full of kindness

Therefore it is quite impossible to say a word but to be sure I am not very when the day is over & I am glad we had a sleep after Sunday is now I shall feel more like myself & that I shall have the comfort of my bed inquire what accounts had you from him & what are your own plans does your business come up for to attend the House must do more work now I wish you were about when in your possession may have had to see the accounts is dreadful that the blood being

& you ~~regard~~ ~~will~~ not to ~~be~~ ~~any~~ moment ~~something~~
of ~~them~~ & ~~love~~ of ~~ill~~ Therefore ~~perhaps~~ I ~~was~~ ~~desirous~~ to be ~~in~~ ~~nothing~~
but ~~these~~ ~~times~~ a ~~day~~ — They ~~all~~ take ~~it~~ ~~quietly~~ &
now I ~~don't~~ —
Good ~~night~~
Mary
