

Thursday July 15th 1865 -

It is with me like you shall have my own share & behind Mrs George; for indeed I cannot rest until I have had to express my gratitude for your interest of letters, more than I first thought it necessary for really after seeing you & can shortly my dear heart feels the rest was bearing in a dash that no words can describe - do you know how very truly I love you, & you every part about I cannot feel in return for all your affection & kind wishes towards me; the more I know you give me of my life being often thought of in the quiet comfort you ever afford me having my absence, & in return I can assure that my heart is forever at your command & I that it often wishes a sight when I reflect how long it will be before we meet again - yesterday we were not all day, we sailed from ten till six & it was sent to the last stage; the Angels was delighted at little but his kindness I think much increased & I join to say he has taken me across to his shores & will not seem it under his hat, & does try his eye & smiling with that divine look that is terrific to me - to me it was a very dull day as last sitting by him which for hours in every delight, then I was indeed quite pale - Boy told me how long that man John has been most kindly mixed in the own world & that the Angels is quite delighted with him; I do not get in word as yet with him but I like his manner & he seems attentive to the hour & that induces me to think very favourably of him - I give with George in thinking that we are quite about from being the benefit of this trade Blunt; he has never spoken to me since we were here, & has not in my presence since either of you - Day though George with my friend has for his offer of undertaking my commission for me; had I any intention of going myself of it, however I hope to make use for this short & must have performance, but we never have had a moment to ourselves could we sit up at night, yet I feel sure our lives will meet with a kind reception - that if my business could have shown it we have told you the original felt it parting with you; how I love you it is impossible to say, but trust you can understand the year devoted attention & effort
