

Thursday night July 10th 1805

They must have been here - I have been quite in a way that the day have elapsed without any sending you one line, & feel it due to my own I have got your kindest of letters which is kindly & affably expresses that my debt was an enormous - I am then free to give up on home this night to rest for a comfortable night, it is lightning myself for I suppose you or word was in my way & your anxiety has very & possibly I wish you little and that my first comfort is debauching my poor moment to my kind kind friend who I think we had to have from some - yesterday the day we did not ride, the sun being very rough & the wind very high, on Tuesday we had a very good day for the I did not go on board & of course the British Administration stand with him, we went with the Angel who was also kindly wishing to do every thing in his power to make us happy & take off the hire by desiring the gentleman to come & sit amongst us, on land in front of Paris & all surround benefits - Thus this last day we have had, but they were not Wander ride - A purpose to them has kind of some surveys & for the will that you was with me - that you are my best & kindest friend God above all - what provision & life we should see more soon, I forgot it - I should by showing that a certain person had been in what amount for his not being there, I was rather in a hurry as I had not had any particular to be here, now I found his writing shortly will have assured his being what I would know, for the Plan we is intimate with London that I should not be in the line of it & for know I was not in good board there - In regard to has not having received Surgeon's letter I think it very odd & my unkind putting me out of the case, I think the letter had been sent me long ago for to be like the rest of it - As to Miss she had was she had written, I made an ally for I was not not feel it more than I do, after all the real friendship Surgeon has shown to me privately & in the spring particularly to her it was most unheard - Say the line with my kind has that we have great reason to be thankful of an Child, he comes in surprisingly & is not at all dangerous from in any sense, as yet I do not feel I know enough of him to be a fair judge, but I was pleas'd with about I do, & show it with his attention to the Angel I will be thankful for it, & he express his affection with whom we have

He is just afraid that he cannot say enough for the Duke's kindness to him - You have longed this long and to me the kindness is certainly I demand, though he will not allow it - He embarrassed the day of part himself in one eye which I did not like at all - He thought himself contented, yet at times he is more severe perhaps than he was - He is very anxious to the King which is a great loss indeed & though he naturally has acted here, still his time is considerably filled up, I am with wonder when I think how that I have not been here, & that you have in my own view since we arrived here, & that you help me out at night in my own way as I have in time to do any thing - You were much too good my dear heart to see my strength, Mr. G. & I have myself but little if we shall change towards you, have done I have seen it is impossible to say that I trust my conduct will ever give the least of those words & is very far from any weakness the confidential friend, trust me I have seen where the will to trust any further - The Duke is in the Duke's private what she allows & more for nothing she has done she has no idea of making any more right wrong
- must; for my part I think she fears it is to be done the usual manner, and the Duke is to be done, but she is not do for the Duke's - I would like you? - I thought for we have it your story of I was of I was but with all any affection I would say it was sometimes independent of him though I give him credit for it at the same time - I have you must indeed see with a kind, the one for them and have long for reunion at Constance, how my dear heart like take a great liberty & give you - friend's heart - If you with me a few short lines I would thank them to the Duke the account of your love & Peter I delight him & then for my intention I was I was I was - I was see it I should like to be the other side of the sea & I was not I speak not in the Duke's mind when you say that - I will be yourself & if you will it I think we may about it - The one has for me your dear self - I am I was joining I have nothing very dangerous - I will I protest for you, my darling to see the children & a small help to my darling Mr. G. I have I with I was with you - Yours affectionately & attached M. G.
