

My beloved I am dear Dear George — I am desired by Amos in the way of you if it is not inconvenient that you will leave the kind:
 : out to leave the last tomorrow at ~~the~~ one instead of this day; for we are not sure what is the business of us this evening as I never did think of going out; therefore we should be the worst of being you; & may I hope you will come to see tomorrow at twelve that I may have you in person before you go below — May let me see your dear children Amos says you are to take them to see to pray in their way let them come to me & I may see you at three — we have had but very little sleep at Windsor. The Angel is pretty well but I thought him ind. I went with him out till Saturday & Sunday; the DeLacy has been in a humour part and some quite a more desire — Th^r May dear he will be soon to fly hereafter depend upon it; if he does he will attract — Yesterday we dined at Waltham, I & his lady as had for us did not get to down till near five, & to the Bly at six — I am sorry the Angel is taller in much of his journey to Weymouth; in these times I wish he could be persuaded to go quietly without making any noise, but I am sure within he will not give it up; he means to go by Worcester & Bath, & th^r what he has for four weeks before we reach Weymouth — Do — a measure I hope to have a good sheet with you my very dear dear love, & thus will tell you also say every thing that is left to doe down I save from me to the love that alone only increases the warmth of attachment: I must I leave you till I that I can be unmistakably see. Yours justly affect

Sally
