

My dear Mrs George -

Thinking that I should probably see you this evening I obliged myself to write the note, in case I saw you evening & before it is my own fault as I missed out the business concerning to visit you later for this evening
 - It was not meant of me but it proved to have frizes me & I trust you will be this in time that in my next it right - Thank I was just delighted to bring you back in such best night & with my kind wishes to bring the same again soon

Yours affly attached

Edith
