

I am most anxious by Dearest to be free to know how you are after your journey to London & hope you will not think I remind the account if I say what you will like to tell me how you really feel. I do not expect a good account in my heart's wish, but if you are not the worse for the exertion I shall be happy — I do hope dear Samy is getting well in the very short account you indulged me with the last time. Dea you did not even begin to I was pained to hear her name in account; Samy told him or to you it was a picture of her think there are any more words indicated in your will for them I was — her side I was more the desire of having a particular account of her Dear Samy. I told her I'd write to you & she did not mind you — Samy was to write I was pained she is bladder in still unable to do her part — to the whole I think her little, but her sufferings are very great. Samy having the fun returned to the boys we will witnessed, but her eyes have been taken, is entirely in uncertainty - The women Pette and Pete, we mentioned last I hope say it into a ... since some their paper she is under by blind thing is well and we will probably I did not mean to trouble it - I hope you by I must have hope, and may I have paper for with some and then think of me who is unwillingly

Your Affection

Eliza

London 21st 1706