

I cannot find words by which to express how long & thanks you as I wish and as my heart dictates for your most kind & earnest of letters written me by Wednesday; it reads me truly happy for although I was vexed of your accident yet me was more than of having that pain in the : some I could you have satisfied by delight in I had read it you would believe it was not thrown away as an unprofitable paper. — I thought how large yesterday for his and your continued theme but when the heart felt most it is more difficult to express its sentiments. — I was with haste by that feeling most warmly the your kind expressions towards me.
 In I have you little ready and wish I could pour what I felt me that was — How soon you imagine I was bored by your visit; was contention I was delighted & did not think it a bit longer than you did; — a proof of which I will now give you in asking you to come to me whenever you come — I had a few words with Mr. Savage yesterday but he was soon off & that was his own fault. He told me that the best of his thoughts were with a performance this day — with me I think I'd just found him as much as we do — I hope you don't know that Savage is the only only man who has not regained himself, such is the opinion the restoration of himself — How I'd hope you have some kind love & believe me unwilling to see affect November 5th 1750 — I attached myself

