

My dear dear & beloved Mrs George - I am quite dying to see you, & hope if it is not inconvenient that you will call upon me to Day at Twelve o'clock - With this I send you a little trifle, not worth your acceptance, indeed it has an amount but that of coming from a most affec-tioned & devoted attachment to you is worth trouble, when you look at the very one: I hope it may mean to them remain of me, & remember that a continuance of your kindness is essential to my comfort & happiness - I can never say you in your own coin, for have I in any degree from the gratified I feel for the affection, Dear Day and that you & dear dear I wish I have shown you my subject - He was most divine the other day, & kind & good past comfort
 - God in Heaven praise & protect you with my very dear dear love & that your happiness may be without alloy in the constant & ardent prayers of Your ever attached & devotedly Affctd

Thursday
 8 o'clock -
