

In order not to lose time I take with the first lot of paper that presents itself to my hand to send you three few lines my beloved friend in answer to your dear letter which was most kind & like yourself. I wish however you could have given me a more full account of your dear self - You may believe when my understanding to this your age as you give me last news to visit whenever I like - I wish to know I do think of you and often wish myself with you - I have as you permitted that my letter was not enclosed to him; I have had news kind & glad he is the same - that my brother was here; he said he had wanted to say to you but that the I had not done for him as he could not stay; but the little I saw of him he was glad to hear of & I expressed him the best news all kindness about by Dr Clifford; & I shall in a few days find - The Sir was friend with a smaller party & they just did not go out of town; the Mary & Anne as was of the best fine husband & forward every night - He is perfectly - forgive of you; had you me - Think what an evening we spent, only the Op of Harriet & the great man Chambers sitting rightly with you & Savage & playing with the lute - the I was delighted with the B. said "I heard all but said out a word" - Will my love beasts in the best feeling & I will not deny that the wind was more to the South - them with a blow.

I shall wish to you and advice & will tell you honestly as I feel, but that I have not words of my mind to fully get I am that each time we must I do not believe help, do you forgive me; I must not say are you angry or Savage will be Savage indeed - God bliss for; I am indeed to be very well at my remembrance in Paris; since you are very happy at it; a thousand thousand love to you Savage; but you have been you are it believe you are
