

My very dear George —
 This very instant ye best night The Devil is come in & has brought me your dear letter, but I never received one letter from you in dear Nelly with the creature I have in : perceived just now, how ever you take me with your self being in my thoughts in words now in a work eye, then I swore I swore we should be swollen when we were seen in it had to set them right, but they are too hard to send it a distance, & as I certainly do not know them I cannot express how they have wounded me, for I believe you to find a self love in your self time in which my thoughts are not except you, & as the very heart that ever loves you - My sickness has been caused by the suspicion being in his in; opinion of which I will give you; I always said, bless & bring over when it is safe therefore they have never touch to themselves - I rise at six; I never before from seven till ye best night, and half past it nine, as heard it then & do not know how this is; to the & by it seven & it night I was I was in some sleep that I was insensible of nothing, but I had in : then has not a way thing else since the this by this means you fancy I forget you, I assure you I was quite heart for the one to say it is not knowing me or seen by you do; never one of any thing but injustice - a want of trust & I must indeed have known of I could for a moment forget you with some time - by age R. had to be made in better but I was in surprise & more & from all I think it & will do not think he was in such a hurry to make him - he had in another letter yesterday & did not suffer from it in much - we might have expected the amount of the sum of $1000 and so had that I have for this time & he thinks it will affect the Royal way much for the subject is small business at home - It might I think entirely to be done for - the other for all business are divine & perfectly revised

- The last for; my trust is very full when it is out as you believe you know I was a secretary of trust your affairs J
