Sweet dear Anne - I have not just received your dear letter with news of Clark & I have not been in any more since since, the diffy shall I be to see you if you ever were home, as we off by there, as if you ever could give you was time & do not know who for I will send if must for bliss time & will send word to the Cart to bring for the Prize's home where I will meet you soon - The best was over this Prize, so I think, the stated - over letter is given, as ever another to buy up not afforded, but defending hardly

I am I have not been, & would if I were for I will explain all the I have thought over in mine was a truly right. I stayed to my own, solid out True - had all the effect here to show savings, & much as we were but had more off, than I can do on
