Queen Charlotte to Lady Charlotte

K.

I rejoice greatly my dearest Lady Charlotte to congratulate You again upon the return of this Day. Tho' Absent You are not forgot amongst the Inhabitants of Windsor & to prove it, I beg You to accept of an Antique I lately met with which is pronounced by Connoisseurs as well executed, I wish it may be so to Your taste & trust that You will always look upon the Donor as Your Unalterable affectionate Friend

I rejoice greatly in your kind letter to congratulate me on my return of this day. My absence has not at all forgotten the satisfaction of Windsor & to prove it, I do not except of an exchange of letters which is promised by your as well as I wish it may be so to your taste & I feel that you will always look upon the town as your Windsor's affectionate friend

Yours
G. M. M.
