

Duke of York to Miss Sophia Fielding

Autograph Wth York Decem^r 3 1712

The Duke of York presents his compliments to Miss Fielding and is extremely sorry that there has been a mistake about her son at Court Garden (which was wrong).

The Duke of Cambridge acquainted the Duke of York that Miss Fielding wished to see the son for some evening when Mr Betty played and said Sunday is the day he usually acted

Upon finding that Mr Betty did not act this evening he is to play tomorrow the Duke of York thought that Mrs. Pultney would be obliged to leave the Dean tomorrow and departed of it for the evening but tomorrow Mrs. Pultney's husband of Mrs.

Pultney knew

D. of York

from St. R. A. Frederick

Duke of York.

1812

The only one I have of his writing in my Royal Ass.

No. 13. I found 1. or 2. others, all of Royal Ass.
=

14 June 1851

Dublin of Gloucester says it is his own writing - (not by a Secretary here)