29th July

my Dear Mrs. Hobbs!

I am very very
sorry if by a misunderstanding I should have given
you an impression
as if I had forgotten
or neglected you,

I was often thinking
what had happened
to prevent you
to come & see
me after your return
to town - but then
the bustle of this
dear little town
makes one forget & therefore I never heard that you had kindly wished to see me — once I had the pleasure of seeing your dear & amiable

 sister, for whose dear
 health & preservation
 I shall pray most fervently — Now it
 is too late to send
 for you but I hope
 on my return to
 this dear country
 I shall have the pleasure of seeing you & dear Mother

in good health &
spirits— believe me say dear Mrs ^{the}

Your most affec
