Portland Dec<sup>r</sup> 15th 1838.

My letter was not in a long one from me quite — but I am determined to write enquire after your fast, or lay, pardon — I understand you are confined with it, & I say you want your lay — & doubly feel say for any one who suffers from them — doubly so I am I am as usually as I do you — I expect a true particular & just account — I fear your natural activity made you so much at first & thus has done you harm — I have been intensely to work upon as I provided but really the heavy & under must be my cause — work quite — this of letter for others which live me to death, pains asked, which cannot be granted, — wishing to oblige, — & often studying — & Prindle's Principles, & been working me with questions. I cannot answer — none more than the question who with the success of England may have in the world can I like - who more probably write the last to know - first of all the of your appears to unite & is reasonable that I feel sure I know do what is right - indeed I never ask questions - nor never write to other people concerns - one has enough to do with one's own - One thing has given me pain which is seeing the death of Mr. Fowler, in the papers of our Colonization Society which belonged & believe to Queen Society for charitable purposes, I was an excellent creature, I know that her death is easily affected & will may be - for she was very much attached to him the not at all of her Politics - but Politics were serious, & make people serious that they were not to be borne then was I settled for the Winter always kindly treated by all Politics for the great vicinity shown me I got my Politics party when I was Once for a wonder, have heard the theatre more to please than please myself — Mrs. Gorb, the personal appearance his son & knowing that the excellent success of his past night's performance but I was so wrapped — it is still when it was over — that I was like a Turkey = felt after having the part from sleep I was some days recovering it — = night I was asked to go to a ball being of a Saturday I hate it as I like to be home before Sunday, however a violent headache decided me to remain quiet for the loudness of their voices — small rooms & all stuck together I could not undertake & now I am sure of church tomorrow? — I get out in the air, when I could, would be like a Mussoury but today I have not, not to be seen, and to the lady as I shall give myself a quiet evening at home return to your Coy, if it is not open - merely a span in the neck & many will you where to get the Subway Balance it is little known in England, but at Moore's in Arlington Street formerly Prussia, Mr. King's Apothecary, it will be had - Mr. King's that has been performed by it quite wonderful, but if the skin is open, it will not do - what is your Surgeon? Can you think me wild that I dare to touch on any thing of the kind - speak to him about it, pray - he will wear by it This place is full of English, many I do not know - for a great number are unknown to anyone - however there are some very remarkable whom we recommend, I see - as yet I have had nothing but a splinter showing the Widder. I may have two on these parties - just to show ma bonne volonte said Edward = = must, & fine Daughters are here some prettier than others, but all are well - they were beginning to be known & invited by you & with these I leave, & travel home - He often comes to make up his party - but he is early out of health, the colonial will not be so long one - this year, so I fear it will be so with with parties - now I do not like going out night after night - one must make a man - I hope you have good accounts of your son - & that our that your own mind is at ease - I can see how worrying the skin of your son - Think of what may happen, but never forget "La ce Dieu garde not die yet - I would I trust has got over her accident well - but at this time of the year your pretty women are made taller in for believe she keeps taken over names No You think George will be able to set her at Amos? I hope so, they alone see, Officers will have difficulty to quit their Stations — You have every reason to be grateful to the Admiralty for so good a Court in a great source of Comfort & happiness when there is scarcely of what one loves, & all speak favourably of him, that you might tolerate Place —

My dinner is just coming up, & my being a regular person, I don't like to drink Steer, & his winter visit, she comes often to me, I think there is a great deal of good in her work but too much feeling & few further happiness — I had seen other I was just I think it pleasant here now my dear Mother's Love remains

We were very kind to come to Bristol I believe in mass

Yours affectionately
