

Articles of Agreement

Entered into by His Excellency, Sir George Blyden Rodney Bart, Admiral and Commander in Chief of the British Fleet on the One Part.

And His Excellency the Hon.<sup>ble</sup> General Vaughan, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces B. G. B. on the other Part.

First, That we for ourselves and all those under our Command, do covenant and agree as far as in us lies, That, all Ships and Vessels laden with Merchandize or otherwise All Publick Stores, Magazines &c. taken at the Surrender of St. Eustatia and its dependencies, shall be distributed according to the Kings pleasure.

O. G. B. Rodney

O. J. Vaughan

Signed, Sealed, and delivered this fifth day of February

One thousand, seven hundred & eighty one

In the presence of Sam. Hood

Arctas. Akins—