Mi

I have this moment your kind enclosed you, the note again signed, as it is made to order, I am entirely in the power of any one, you or I, to give it over to, and a person, must be my debt, in case you pay it away, till I can pay it, on demand.

But I trust, knowing how I am situated, you will not part with it. I have no other prospect, but this 1000 legacy, and that a distant one, as it has turned out, to my destruction.
But what blame, can be imputed to me? However, if you pay it away, I shall undertake the consequences, without a measures, if my volunteering a sail, would pay your demand I would embrace one, with much real pleasure, surely it would be, in pursuit, of peace of mind, happiness, to the life, I now lead, divided from all that are near, and dear to me.

As you bid me receive, a letter for a parcel of expensives, I I am no happier, under a year, The young lady, who is dead, being born in Dominica, in the West Indies, where we had at first the recovery of the money, were there, no other difficulties in it.

I must repeat, nothing but the obligation I owe you for and the obligation, on your part, could induce me, for my life and I am to sign a note payable on demand. I am sorry to be still, to consider misdeeds, turns, and disappointments, as my blame; I shall not confess my obligations to you, and sincerely lament. This has occurred

I entirely throw myself upon your indulgence, and I am: you please the power to confine me for my whole life. I am with respects Sir

Your most Obedient devoted Servant
John Buller
