Dear Augustus

Knowing Your affection for me, and being thoroughly persuaded How much You interest Yourself in every thing which concerns me, I take the earliest opportunity to acquaint You, that I am going to be married to the Prince Frederique, the King of Prussia's eldest Daughter, who has been an old flame of mine for above six years, Having the advantage of knowing her well, and it being perfectly a marriage of inclination on both sides, I am perfectly convinced, that I shall be very happy. Her Majesty, and the King of Prussia have given their consents in the handsomest manner possible, and as for the Prince of Wales he has behaved nobly indeed, he yet no time is fix'd for the Wedding, but I have writ to the King to beg them to let it be as soon as possible. I am rejoic'd to hear my Dear Mother's Brother that London goes on so well, and that Your Health is mending, I shall take care as soon as I get back to England to execute Your commissions, Pray remember ^{be} to Your Gentlemen and believe me ever, My Dearest Augustus

Your most affectionately Frederick
