

Enclosure

To The Kings most excellent Majesty,
The Petition of Caroline Queen Consort,

Her Majesty seeks to lay before The King this Representation of the grievance to which she has been subjected, by the continued omission of her name in the Liturgy: The Privilege of being prayed for by name in the Church Service has been enjoyed by her Predecessors Queen Consort of England, from the time of the Reformation and has been ever highly esteemed as a Mark of Honor & dignity

Her Majesty has always been impressed with the strongest feelings of Regret, that the King should have yielded to any advice, by which she should be excluded, and thereby degraded, in the estimation both of His Majesty's Subjects, and of Foreign Nations all further Proceedings against Her Majesty being being now finally abandoned, the Queen should your Majesty as an act of justice & grace to permit her the enjoyment of that Privilege now so long withheld

The Queen with reluctance makes this her appeal to your Majesty & earnestly prays that this her only request may be granted
