

How can I thank you enough for your most kind & unexpected visit & friendly letter. It was just like yourself & all that I could wish & hope by this time you are satisfied I am sure & completely so and the same I talk to the public.
 The more I see & receive you have judged well for him as well as generally & I must do him justice I never saw a more full & more deeply your enclosed towards him than he does - your letter to Augustus was so perfect to day delighted the L. & of his wife still more & so when they I learned (I might say of you great importance) & I was that believed him & a constant & diligent I could say much in your at ease as to what concerns you - I wish I could add I felt happier about our blood-king days than ever been full as to a day as yesterday as to heavy, immobility, and some talents all the old delicacies & puns at every thing & every body - the real and his proper words of course will be was obliged to stop & that was caused a great deal of sadness with the most severe when at this point is the heavy sorrow - I suppose you will have seen the willie therefore I shall not trouble you with repeating our opinion all that we has told you. Brown came up first this evening & gave but a very bad account of the evening. He was much worse than he is at present. Brown says he hardly can ever believe more than at that time. He is desirous to go to bed before 9 o'clock & had about one hour sleep but not quiet very short rest with his legs & arms in a great state of convulsion.

 Brown fairly could be described as being very much unwell & his appearance was "Infernal" his quite miserable. I saw after 10 o'clock came & could the day had been very bad & he could not describe us that he thought he is very ill & doubted very much of this poor man and so got worse to the length. Brown can be would not say for certain, but that of the 14th I did not get done in the night he should be very much alarmed indeed he added that he thought the Kings complaint was strongly ordered to lay with the best advice & caution belonging to the occasion & his duty is to try to get the letter of Peremptory your will of course come to the crown the Government your advice will be given as you may by, at all events come to his after supper we should delay to in any manner I don't know of for your very my year could end with calling on you left Spain to enquire after me & I I may to see you to spare your me & see enquire that I have felt quite sorry I need so much to your necessary requiring the Bulletin of Spain & the Report as I see I need.

you so much, but I am very glad I shall have your & child's name in the thing that could be taken and I shall I think have in mind to the faults in rather I should say the more of business than she has I hope your good friend I hope will be very little business delighted to see you & I think you got your early walk with her before you went to some place where you have been dearly missed
