O.F.M.

From The Librarian, Windsor Castle, Berkshire.

This volume was bought in July 1940 for £15 from Miss Chamberlaine, of "Talboys", Keevil, Wilts: it was to have been included in an auction sale of her effects, but I bought it by private treaty beforehand. The auctioneers' letter stated:-

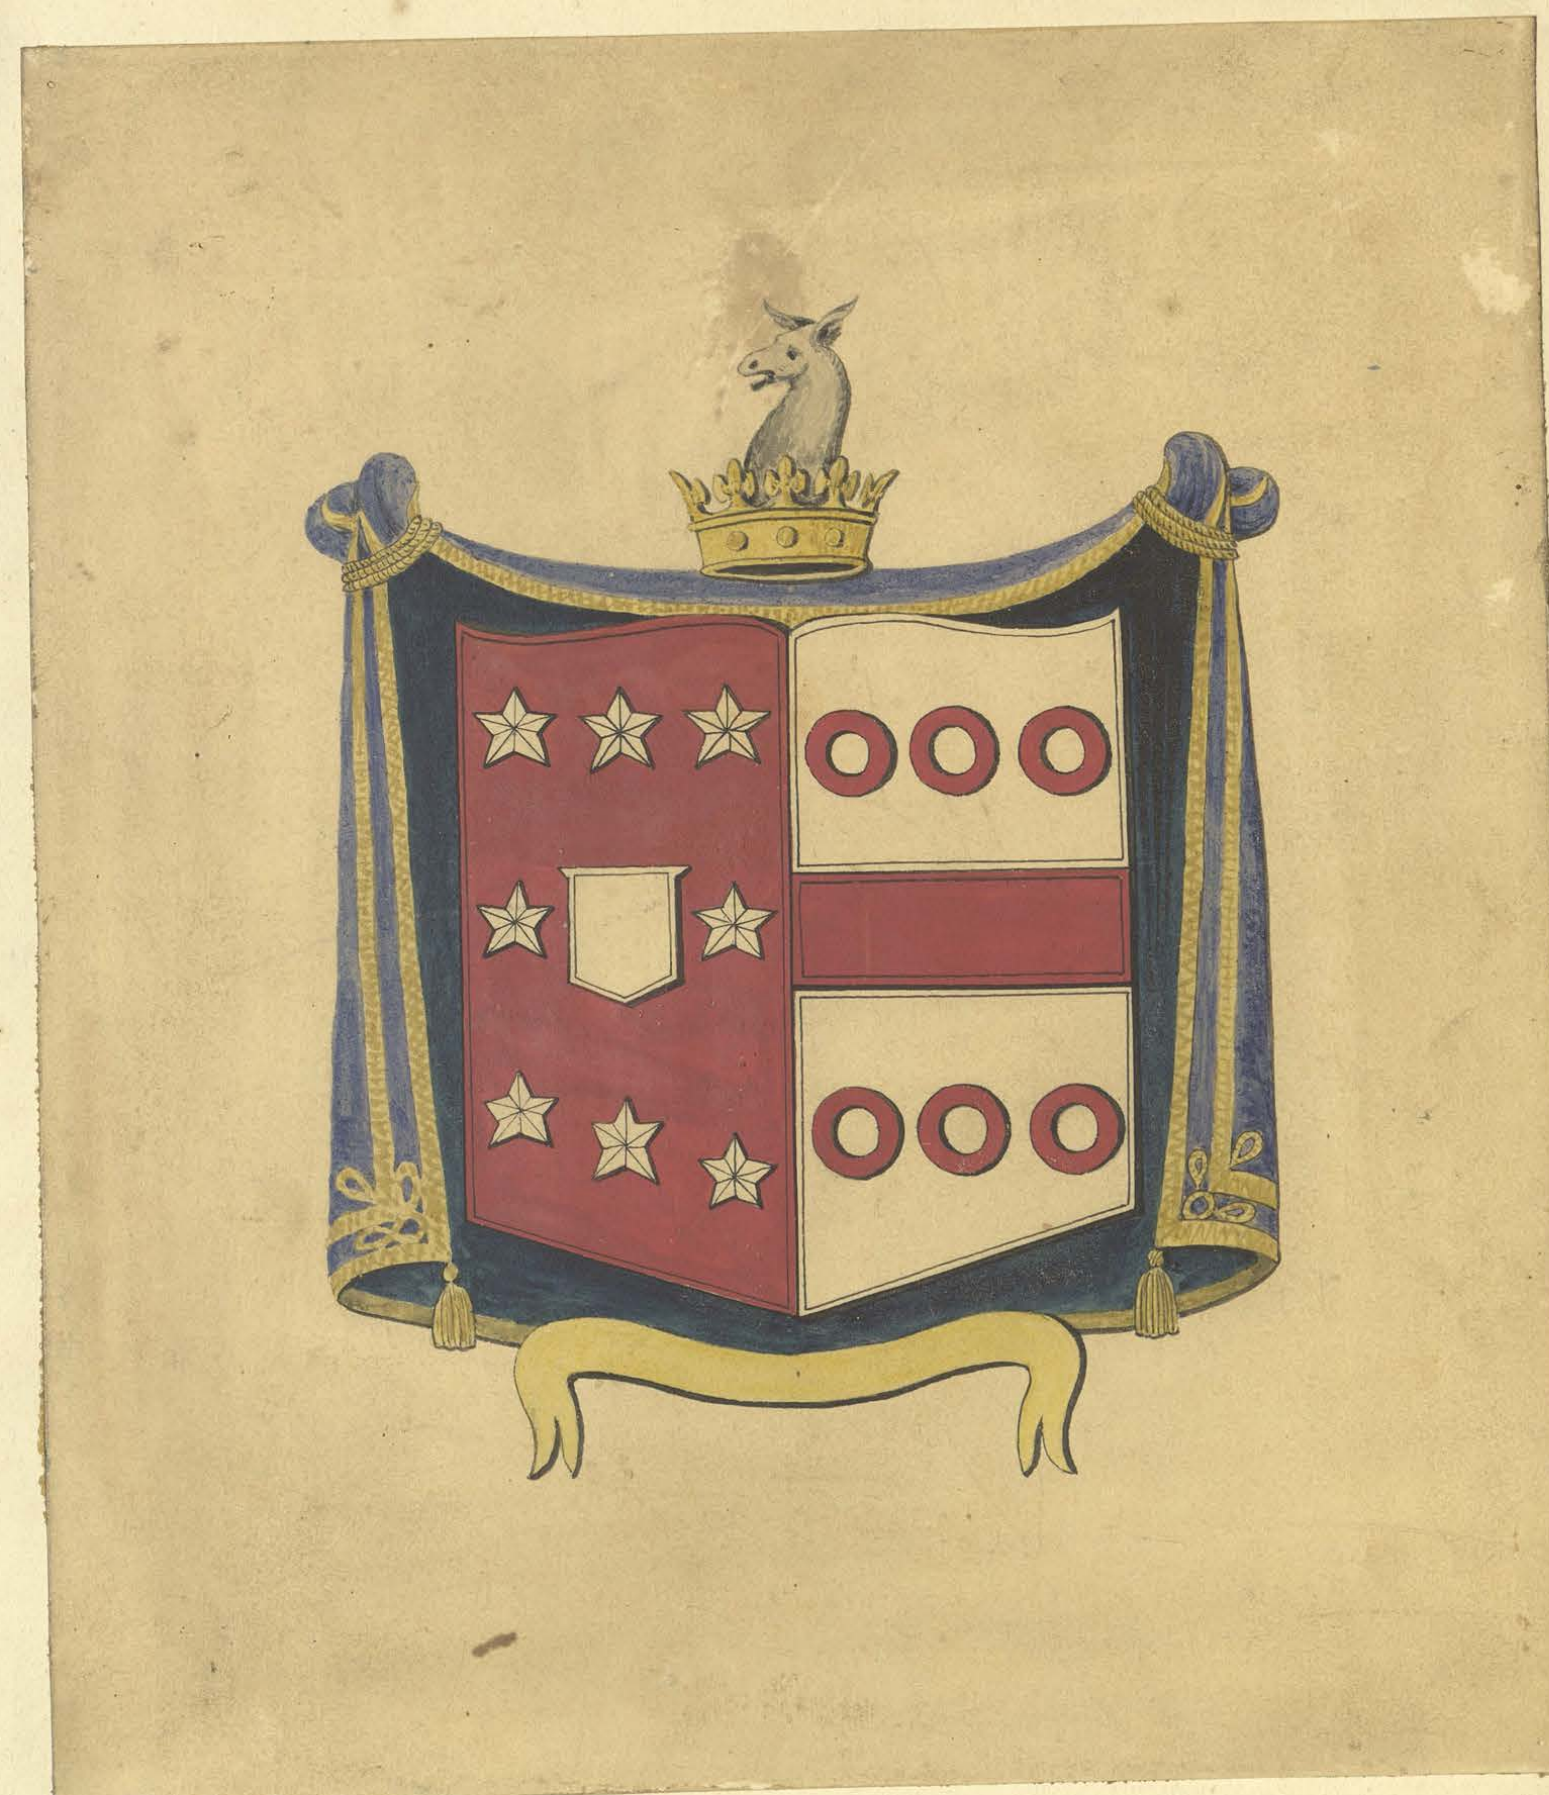

The book is the property of Miss Chamberlaine, one of whose ancestors named Pooke was at Court in the reign of King George III, and we understand that the family came from Fareham, Hants. Miss Chamberlaine is however very old, and we regret that she cannot give us very detailed information as to how the book came into her possession.

It seems more reasonable to link the provenance of the book with John Chamberlaine (1745-1812), who succeeded Dalton in 1791 as Keeper of the King's Drawings & Medals (vide D.N.B.)
